TOUR OF PALAIS DE NATIONS

THE UNITED NATIONS OFFICE AT GENEVA

Imagine stepping into a world where history, diplomacy, and the aspirations of humanity converge. A tour of the Palais des Nations, the iconic European headquarters of the United Nations in Geneva, is nothing short of a transformative experience—a journey through the corridors of power where the future of the world is shaped.

As you enter this architectural masterpiece, nestled amidst the serene beauty of Ariana Park with its majestic view of Lake Geneva and the Alps, you are greeted by an air of purpose and global unity. The Palais is not merely a building; it is a living symbol of international cooperation and peace. Walking its hallowed halls, you'll feel the weight of historic negotiations and decisions that have impacted millions of lives.

The guided tour takes you through its grand Assembly Hall, where global leaders have gathered to address the most pressing challenges of our times. Stand where history was made, from the formation of groundbreaking treaties to discussions that have ended wars and engaged in sustainable development. The Council Chamber, with its intricate murals and aura of gravitas, offers a glimpse into the diplomacy that drives global peace.

For students, the tour is an electrifying opportunity to witness diplomacy in action. It's a chance to connect classroom learning to the real world, to imagine oneself as a future ambassador or policymaker or a peace worker, shaping the course of humanity. Every corner of the Palais whispers stories of perseverance, dialogue, and the enduring quest for justice and equality.

This is not just a tour—it's an invitation to dream, to lead, and to be a part of history.

BROKEN CHAIR, GENEVA – STUDY TOUR

The Broken Chair in Geneva is a powerful and thought-provoking sculpture that stands as a symbol of the ongoing struggle against landmines and other weapons that continue to maim and kill innocent civilians around the world. The study tour offers an life-changing experience.

Designed by the Swiss artist Daniel Berset and erected in 1997, the Broken Chair stands tall at 12 meters (39 feet) in front of the Palais des Nations, the headquarters of the United Nations Office at Geneva. The chair, with its single, twisted leg, serves as a stark reminder of the devastating impact of landmines and the urgent need for global action to address this humanitarian crisis.

The Broken Chair has become an iconic landmark in Geneva, drawing visitors from around the world to reflect on the human toll of armed conflict and the importance of disarmament and peace-building efforts. It stands as a powerful symbol of resilience, courage, and the unwavering determination to create a world free from the scourge of landmines and other indiscriminate weapons.

HOMAGE TO MAHATMA GANDHI

"MY LIFE IS MY MESSAGE" | "MA VIE EST MON MESSAGE"

As part of the programme, all participants will invited to pay home to the Mahatma, MK Gandhi, the Father of the Nation of India.

Statue background: Geneva and Gandhi are both references in the search for peace amongst mankind. In the international district, next to the United Nations European headquarters, visitors can find a perfect spot to meditate in the Ariana park. Here stands the statue of India's "Father of the Nation", donated to the city in 2007 by the government of India as a token of friendship.

The bronze statue of Mahatma Gandhi was created by Indian sculptor Gautam Pal. The unveiling took place on November 14th, 2007 as part of celebrations marking 60 years of Indo-Swiss friendship treaty (1948-2008). It stands as a symbol of peace and non-violence that Mahatma Gandhi strongly advocated for.

YOUR VIDEO MESSAGE TO THE WORLD

— YOUR MESSAGE TO THE WORLD —

This is a powerful opportunity for each participant to deliver a video message to the world. By taking the stage and sharing your perspectives, you can use this platform to raise awareness, advocate for important causes, or inspire others with your personal stories and experiences.

The video messages allow for a more personal and impactful connection with the audience. Participants can speak directly to the camera, conveying their passion and authenticity in a way that written content simply cannot match. This format gives them a chance to make a lasting impression and leave a mark on those who view the presentations.

Furthermore, compiling these video messages into a cohesive part of the overall program creates a compelling and multi-dimensional experience for attendees. It adds a human element that complements the other informative and educational components, making the a truly well-rounded and immersive learning opportunity.
